The Easter Story

But on the first day of the week at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking spices that they had prepared, and they found the stone rolled back from the tomb. But on entering they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, while they were wondering what to make of this, that, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling raiment.

And when the women were struck with fear and bowed their faces to the ground, they said to them "Why do you seek the living one among the dead?" He is not here but has risen. Remember how he spoke to you while he was yet in Galilee, saying that the Son of Man must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified and on the third day rise." Luke 24-1-7

FIRST EASTER SERVICES . . . Parishioners of the St. Philomena Catholic Church on South Main St., which was dedicated this month, will gather in their new church this morning to attend Easter Sunday services. Typical of hundreds of families of the Torrance area who will worship today in churches throughout the city is this St. Philomena parish family. Pictured before the altar in this beautiful new church are Mr. and Mrs. Mike Marinovich, 22823 Broadwell Ave., and their children, Michelle, 2; Matthew, 4; Mike, 5; Mary Ann, 7, and Mitchell, four months.

COUNTING HER EGGS . . . Nancy Crawford, 20-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edison Crawford, 102 Via La Soledad, Hollywood Riviera, takes time out to sit on the grass and count her eggs she found at the Alpha Delta Pi Easter Egg Hunt. Nancy is happy with her lot, the others found more, she opines, but why shouldn't they, their legs are longer.

AN EASTER EGG HUNT . . . Brightly colored eggs hidden by the Easter Bunny in the shrubbery and grass of the El Retiro Park were the treasures sought by children of the members of the Alpha Delta Pi South Bay Alumnae Assn. last Saturday morning. Distributing the gaily colored baskets for the hunt are Mmes. George Ott, G. R. Reinhardt, Charles E. Dutton. Children are Lisa Joan Ott, Steven and Patty Beth Reinhardt and Toby Dutton.

Carousel Music

Club to Hear Musicale, Honor Past Presidents

Past presidents will be honored at the meeting of the Torrance Woman's club next Wednesday at the clubhouse. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 and a business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Don Wolf, will follow. One of the most outstanding programs of the club year is scheduled for the afternoon with the appearance of the First Operetta Group.

The group of artists will present a streamlined one hour version of Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Carousel." Director and accompanist for the group is Harper MacKay—pianist-composer. Mr. MacKay has just completed many weeks work on the MGM production "Porgy and Bess," and has film credit for work on "The King and I" and "Good Morning Miss Dove."

Olive Rice, soprano, who will appear with the group, has had leading roles with the Guild Opera Company, Los Angeles Opera Foundation and Euterpe and Hollywood Opera reading clubs, as well as regular appearances on television for two years.

Keith Wyatt, tenor, gained recognition as a winner in three important local voice contests: The Church Federation of Los Angeles Competition, Atwater-Kent and Hollywood Bowl Auditions. He was soloist on two national tours with the Robert Shaw Chorale. A third took him and the Chorale to 21 countries in Europe and the Near East. He is now soloist with the Roger Wagner Chorale and has toured with them.

Sally Hazard is one of the Southland's leading dramatic sopranos, and is a graduate of the Lotte Lehmann master class. After triumphant success in "La Cenerentola" and "The Saint of Bleeker Street" with the Guild Opera Company, she has been invited to recreate her role in the latter in its Broadway presentation.

Completing the group is Philip Harvey, contract player of Universal-International Studios, and baritone with the Los Angeles Civic Light Opera Company and the Greek Theatre.

Club Hostess

An Easter motif was used in decorating when Mrs. Burton Easley entertained her bridge club last Friday afternoon at her home 3306 Eldorado.

In the bridge games following the luncheon the first prize was won by Mrs. Walter Levy, second, Mrs. Parke Montague and third, Mrs. Robert Triplitt.

Mrs. Easley's other guests were Mmes. Gerald Eastham, Philip Holloran, W. E. Grubbs, Calvin Blakely, Douglas Baldwin and Henry Backlund.

Mrs. Eastham will be the club's next hostess.

MARYLOU KIRKPATRICK

Spa Vacation

Dr. and Mrs. Burton Easley and Donna and Larry returned Monday from a three day trip the Soboba Hot Springs.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"... Then he goes chasing fillies" . . .

Dear Ann: I'll bet you won't print this but I have to write it anyway. That letter from Carl who said he wanted a "working partner" — someone willing to go 50-50 in the harness" was really a corker. And your answer was right up there, too, Ann. You asked him if he was looking for a wife or a horse.

I was one of those "double-harness" gals for more years than I care to remember. What happened? He dumped me for a woman 10 years younger.

Why? She was more of a companion to him than I was. I'm not making excuses. Facts are facts. When a woman is in the harness 12 hours a day, taking care of a big house, little kids, laundry, cooking, canning, and then he expects her to help in his business there's not much pep left to be a mate.
